Howells from Hereford

The Choir of Hereford Cathedral Directed by Geraint Bowen
Peter Dyke organ

This collection of works by Herbert Howells (1892–1983), recorded in the radiant acoustic of Hereford Cathedral, presents the three sets of evening canticles written for the cathedrals of the Three Choirs Festival, together with the complete canticles written for King's College, Cambridge ('Collegium Regale') and the set of Four Anthems which includes his most popular choral work 'Like as the hart'.

"Hereford Cathedral Choir performs with captivating vigour, fervour and attention to detail, in this bright acoustic where the producer/engineer Gary Cole (based in Wolverhampton) has managed to capture proceedings with impressive clarity."

Birmingham Post 6 August 2009

"If you like the chaste beauty of the English cathedral tradition, as I do, you will warm to this recital in the atmospheric acoustic of Hereford Cathedral."

Financial Times 1.8.09

"..a glowing recording by this fine choir, which features an impressive set of trebles"
